Disability Rights NC (DRNC), our state's Protection and Advocacy organization for people with disabilities, works to support voters with disabilities in understanding and exercising their right to vote. Voters with disabilities are the most disenfranchised group of voters. Hear how DRNC combats this disparity and educates folks on the best ways to exercise their right to vote.

Learning Objectives:

1. What is DRNC?
2. How does DRNC help people with disabilities vote?
3. What do people with IDD need to know about their right to vote?
