Help with Applications and Eligibility

Because DRNC's work is federally funded, we cannot help you with your applications for Medicaid, Social Security Disability Benefits, or Supplemental Security Insurance—SSI. This is a referral list of organizations and attorneys who may be able to help you with trying to obtain SSDI, SSI or Medicaid. They may also be able to answer questions about your eligibility for Social Security disability or Medicaid benefits.

Attorney List for Medicaid and Social Security Matters

Please note that Disability Rights North Carolina assumes no responsibility or liability for the professional ability or reputation of, or the quality of services provided by, the following persons or firms. Inclusion on this list is in no way an endorsement by Disability Rights North Carolina. Names are listed alphabetically, and the order in which they appear has no other significance.

Information about professional credentials, areas of expertise and language ability are provided directly by the lawyers. You may receive additional information about these attorneys by contacting the local bar association (or its equivalent) or the local licensing authorities. None of the attorneys or the law firms on the following list are affiliated with Disability Rights North Carolina. Once you contact them, they may discuss with you their ability to assist you with your case and the fees for their services. ☒

Important Note: Before making an appointment to see a lawyer on this list, first ask if you will be charged for the initial consultation, and if so, how much the fee will be for this service. ☒
